

All in: Life in community
Week three: Worship

Discussion questions from the teaching on 1/24/16:

When you think of worship, what comes to mind? How can that be helpful and how can that be harmful?

Do you agree that worship is always a response?
Have you ever had a 'trees covered in ice and snow' worship moment?
Can you think of other Scriptures like Colossians 1:13-17 that provoke a response, or worship, from you?
How can we become more attune to moments that should provoke a response, or worship, from us?

From Romans 12:1-2; what does it mean to you to be a 'living sacrifice'?
What does it mean to you to be able to test and approve what God's will is?

Do you agree that everyone is worshipping something?
Is it really possible for people that don't believe in a god to worship?
Is it possible to worship God and something else?

From Micah 6, is there anything we could ever give enough of to God in response to who He is and what He has done?
What emotions do you feel as you read verses 6-8? Why?
Do you think it's realistically possible to live a life characterized by worship?

Million dollar question: How is all of this talk about worship and a life characterized by worship connected to living life in community (the people of Jesus intentionally living life together)?

Discussion questions from the article:

What do you think about the worship service picnic? Do you agree with the author?
From Romans 1:25, can you think of examples of people worshipping the created instead of the creator?
How can we guard against doing the same?
