

All in: Life in community

Week two: Our (healthy) ekklesia

Please use this space to take any notes that you wish and use it to help refresh your memory, spark thoughts or questions, and engage in discussion in small groups this week.

Review: We want All in (everyone) on being All in (wagering everything) for life in community.

Our working definition of community-The people of Jesus intentionally living life together.

The church (ekklesia) is the venue that God provides for us to experience life in community.

A healthy ekklesia leads to healthy community leads to a healthy ekklesia.

Some characteristics of a healthy ekklesia are that they are joyful.

A healthy ekklesia is prayerful.

A healthy ekklesia is united.

A healthy ekklesia is selfless.
