

All in: Life in community
Week five: Reach

Discussion questions from the teaching on 2/7/16:

Why should we reach out?

What do you think about the AND, AND, AND?

What objections or reasons/justifications not to reach out have you heard, believed, or experienced?

What does it mean to you to be salt and light?

What does it mean to you to be an ambassador for Christ?

What does it mean to you to be a disciple maker?

Do you believe that reaching out will happen naturally or require intentionality? Why?

How can being in community with others help us reach out?

How can we, being in community, help others reach out?

Discussion questions from the article:

What do you think about the Charles Spurgeon quote that "All Christians are either missionaries or imposters"?

What do you think of the idea of informal missionaries?

What do you think it looks like for one person to bring the gospel to another in the context of a relationship?

Do you think doing so with your neighbor makes you a missionary?

Do you think we are called to be salt and light but not missionaries?

Do you think that calling all believers missionaries takes away from vocational missionaries?

If you got to pick, what language would you use to describe the believers call to reach out?
